No 82 dated 28th Dec 92 forwarding for Enquiry and report a Petition from Gunder Row Abkari Contractor for Malur, Oygkal & Betmangal circles complaining of the non-supply of arrack and claiming compensation &c, the Excise commissioner reported that Messrs Parry & Co obtained permission to import country spirits from their distillery at Nellikuppam, but for a few days before the arrival of consignments from Nelli-kuppam they could not comply with most of the indents for supplies of liquor and that he had requested the Dy Commrs of districts to make careful enquiries and submit compensation statements ~~in these~~ excluding only the real cases of "no stock" and that on receipt of those statements the case of Gundu Rao will be duly disposed of.

3. In reply to the Govt Proc. noted on the margin the Excise Commr has now submitted a detailed statement showing the amounts of Compensation payable by Messrs Larry and Co for not supplying arrack for several days in December & that payable to Govt being Rs 8,371-5-6 and to the farmers and separate shopkeepers Rs 1,227-5-6, stating that in consequence of bacterial fermentation of the wash at the Distillery, arrack could not be manufactured

Government Proceedings No. 5861/191-92, dated 23rd October 1892.

*Serial No (19)

In reply I have the honor to state that the rule in regard to the maintenance of stock of not less than 17,500 gallons, could not be enforced in the case of the liquor imported from Nellikuppam. Messrs Parry & Co have commenced distillation in the Government Central Distillery, Bangalore, from 1st October 1892. Orders have been issued to them to increase the stock to the prescribed quantity. They have had some difficulty to procure labor for putting up Stills and ten Stands. Thirteen stills are now at work, and when the re-maining nine stills which will be fitted up shortly, are brought into working order, there would be no difficulty to manufacture and maintain the prescribed quantity of stock.

Sir,

I am directed to forward for enquiry and report a petition dated the 26 Dec: 1892 from Gundadhar Abkari Contractor for Malur, Jyakal & Betmangala circles, complaining of the non-supply of arrack and claiming compensation.

I am to add that there has been a general complaint in this respect from all Districts, and that the Contractors for the manufacture of arrack appear to have rendered themselves liable to damages both to the Government and to the vendors.

I have &c

paying a defaulting contractor the amount of the claim as it is evident that such contracts expressly exempt a person like the petitioner from liability.

Sir,

In acknowledging the receipt of your letter No. D. H. 82 (26), dated 28th December 1892, I have the honor to state that, in consequence of certain difficulties, (vide this Office No. 2857/148, dated 26th November 1892), Messrs Parry & Co., manufacturers of arrack to the Mysore State, could not manufacture adequate quantity of arrack at the Bangalore Distillery to cope with the demand for it, and under such circumstances they applied for and obtained permission to import country spirits from their Distillery at Nellikoppam. But for

for a few days before the arrival of consignments from Vellikoppam, they could not comply with most of the indents for supplies of liquor. The non-Compliance with the indents for want of stock at the Distillery, does not necessarily imply that the Rend farmers and Separate shop-keepers were actually without stock for sale to the public. I have therefore requested the Deputy-Commissioners to make Careful enquiries and submit Com=pensation Statements in the prescribed form, embodying only the real Cases of "No Stock". On the receipt of such statements, the Case of Tyunder Row, the arrack Rend-farmer of Madura, Tyathal and Betmangal circles, whose Petition is herewith returned, will be duly disposed of.

from Nellikuppam, that Messrs Parry and Company commenced distillation in the Government Distillery Bangalore on the 1st October 1892 and that orders had been issued to them to increase the stock to the prescribed quantity.

~~Order thereon~~ With reference to the above, Government observe that there has been a chronic deficiency of stock of liquor at the Distillery. The Excise Commissioner will explain why why he considers that the prescribed minimum stock could not be maintained in the case of Nellikuppam liquor.

Sir,

In acknowledging the receipt of Government Proceedings No: 9901 (36) / R.7 191-92, dated 6th/9th instant, I have the honor to state that, several days before the arrival of consignments of spirits from Nellikuppum, the stock at the distillery had exhausted, and consequently, the indents for supplies of liquor from the Bonded and Farm Depots, could not be readily complied with. But as stated in this office No: 3690/204, dated 30th Dec. / 5th Jan. 1893, (27) the non-compliance of the indents does not necessarily imply that there there was actually no stock in all the Depôts from which such indents had been received. Most of the separate shops and some of the Depots had doubtless run out of stock for several days. The Deputy Commissioners of Districts have been requested to make careful enquiries and ascertain the actual cases of "no stock"; and on receipt of their reports, a detailed Statement showing such cases, and the compensation payable by the manufacturers thereon, will be submitted to Government.

2. Messrs: Parry & Co: requested certain modifications in the existing Rules, and pending the decision of Government thereon, they deferred the execution of their Contract-Bond. One of such modifications, namely, that they should be permitted to fix their own prices for spirits stronger than 20° U. P., instead of the proportionate rates prescribed in the Rules, was sanctioned temporarily in

No 1299 — 1902 — R 1902 — Sub to ch. Sen on 18.1.93 in Government Proceedings No: 9525 / R. 1199-92 dated 26/28th December 1892. Messrs: Parry & Co: have been requested to furnish the requisite stamp without further delay, and to expedite the execution of the Contract Bond.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Sir,

In acknowledging the receipt of your No. 26 11220/RJ 191-92, dated 6th Instant, (received on the 12th Idem), I have the honor to state that, as Messrs Parry & Co had to meet the demand for liquor in the Madras Presidency also, they could not send sufficient supplies from Nellikuppam, so as to maintain the prescribed minimum stock of 17,500 gallons at the Bangalore Central Distillery; but they have now promised to increase the stock to such quantity in course of a week.

With reference to para 3 of Government Proceedings No. 13579/R7191-92, dated 15th February 1893, I have the honor to forward herewith, copy of letter from Mr. Millar, agent to Messrs Parry & Co explaining that the stock of Spirits at the Co Distillery on 31st January 1893, when reduced to the issuable strength of 20° U.P. would be 29,443 gallons, which is more than the prescribed minimum quantity.

Bangalore

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your memo No. 4401/269, of 16th/17 February 1893 regarding the stock of spirit on 31st January. The average stock during the month of January was 30,504 gallons 20° U.P and the stock on the 31st January was 28,443 gallons 20° U.P. The official return, I understand, shows only the number of liquid gallons, irrespective of strength. On the 31st January nearly the entire stock was overproof spirit, and hence the actual equivalent of 20° U.P in store was considerably larger than the figure given in the official return which represented liquid gallons only

I have &c.

Para 1 of Government Proceedings No. 9901/R. F. 191-92, dated 6th January 1893, and this Office No. 3845/225, dated 9/16th idem.

With reference to the above, I have the honor to forward, herewith, a detailed statement showing the amount of Compensation payable by Messrs Parry and Co. for not supplying arrack for several days in December 1892.

2. In consequence of bacterial fermentation fermentation having taken place in wash at the Bangalore Distillery, Arrack could not be manufactured in it, and therefore the stock had exhausted before the arrival of consignments of liquor from the Pellikuppam Distillery in the Madras Presidency, so that indents for supplies of liquor were not complied with by Messrs. Parry and Co. Consequently liquor could not be supplied to Arrack vend farmers and separate shop-keepers on the days specified in the accompanying Statement, from which it will be seen that the compensation payable to Government by Messrs. Parry and Co. is Rs. 8,371-5-6, and to the farmers and separate shop-keepers is Rs. 1,227-5-6. But under the unavoidable unavoidable circumstances e mentioned above, I beg to recommend that the Government may be pleased to forego the Amount of Compensation to which it is entitled Messrs Parry and Co being required to pay Compensation only to the farmers and separate shop-keepers who cannot forego it in as-much-as they purchased the right of vend from Government for considerable sums of money.
